

1990 Hall of Fame Inductee Bill Vincent – Arvada

Bill Vincent was born May 12, 1927 in Denver, Colorado. Bill was a longtime Denver area sports official and teacher.

Bill graduated from Wheat Ridge High School in 1945 and earned Bachelors and Master's degrees in education from the University of Denver while playing football.

Bill taught in the Denver Public Schools for 34 years before retiring in December, 1984.

His sports officiating career covered virtually all amateur levels and spanned 46 years. Bill was the second president of CHSBUA from 1975-1977. He was the co-founder of the Umpires Association of Colorado and was assigned secretary for U.A.C. umpires and assigned for the northern league.

Bill had the nickname "wheels" as football official due to lack of speed on the field. He co-founded the Carnation Bowl, a championship game for Jefferson County youth football.
