

Hall of Fame Inductee Gene Rozelle – Grand Junction

Gene Rozelle was born in Danbury, Nebraska and he moved to Grand Junction as a child attending local schools graduating from Central high in 1947. Shortly after graduating, he joined the Air Force where he served his country proudly. He served four years in France before returning home to the Grand Valley.

Gene's love of sports led him to a career in sports casting. Gene was known for his love of sports, bingo, his quiet time fishing and painting.